Re: In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation
Case No. 1:05-md-01720 (JG)(JO)

Dear Judge Gleeson:

We represent several putative class members in the above-captioned litigation, including Enterprise Holdings, Inc., Bridgestone Americas, Inc., Ingram Micro, Inc., Jack-in-the-Box, Inc., SYNEX Corporation, and The Regents of the University of California, among others. We write to respectfully request that the Court permit us to speak at the September 12, 2013 fairness hearing on behalf of our clients.

As evidenced by the numerous objections filed by members of the settlement class, the proposed Class Settlement Agreement raises certain concerns, many of which are particularly salient to our clients. Specifically, our clients are concerned with the calculation of the “takedown amount” in this case, objections and concerns that have not been raised by other claimants that have stayed in the class. We believe that the Court will benefit from having the opportunity to hear our concerns at the fairness hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
